would like to sponsor at the 2010 Houston Regional . . .

Ed Groner
Appreciation
Stratified Pairs

Ed Groner started playing as a teen, with his parents and he quickly learned how to take tricks when he was the declarer. He played in college and got hooked on duplicate bridge about 1956, after he had married and was living in Duncan, Oklahoma. When it was difficult to win masterpoints, he became a Life Master in 1959, three years after his “embarkation”. He quit playing in 1963 to concentrate on his family and job.

In 1980, he was able to resume his bridge and found the game more enchanting than ever. He retired in 1990, and was able to devote quality time representing District 15 on various national championship levels. He currently has over 12,000 masterpoints and has been on the Top 500 masterpoint winners for 10 consecutive years. He moved to Houston in 2001, and served a term on the Unit 174 Board of Directors.

Currently, Ed is teaching a popular course on Slam Bidding, which due to class enrollment limitations, may “run” for years. His teaching ability will provide his students with skills designed to tame the “waves and winds” of competitive bridge. His demeanor and skill as a partner are unequaled.

If there is a Fourth Dimension (Space) and Parallel Universes do exist, let us hope that we all encounter this wonderful man, time and time, again.

Smiley Faces

You may have noticed the new yellow Smiley Face cards in your bidding boxes. Unit 174 has provided these to give players an easy, non-confrontational way of letting partner/opponents know that their behavior is not conforming to the Zero Tolerance guidelines.

If you feel the situation warrants, simply pull out the card and lay it on the table for a short period. If the behavior doesn't stop, then call the director. It really is a good way to lessen the tension at the table.

Parking at the NABC

Discounted parking for the Houston NABC, March 12-22, is available for $5 with your convention card at the following locations:

Check the ACBL website for an update.
