Book Store

Britain Beesley's OKLA. BOOKS store, specializing in bridge books and novelties, will be open before and after the sessions throughout the tournament.

David & Elizabeth Swig
Stratified Open Pairs

David and Elizabeth “Libby” Swig were constant in their affection for the game and in their service to the bridge community. Both became life masters in the early 1960’s and continued to play for the rest of their lives. Wherever they resided — Cincinnati, Houston, Denver, Connecticut, New Jersey, Virginia, Holland, or Brazil — they were beacons for new players and often held regular small games at their home.

While living in Connecticut, Libby wrote columns for the ACBL’s Bridge Bulletin. While traveling across the Atlantic on the ocean liner, Michelangelo, she partnered with the captain at the ship’s “bridge tournament” and came home with the winner’s trophy as a souvenir. Libby played bridge intuitively and with a lively spirit, much the way she met life in general.

Dave was a methodical and analytical player. His main “exercise” was testing theories of bridge bidding and play. He shared his skill and knowledge with others, and taught many how to play the game. It gave him great satisfaction to see his “students” develop into skillful players. He played a bridge game that brought him many victories and well-deserved renown as a bridge strategist and theoretician.

Louise Swig and Richard Fox

Margery & Daniel Fitzsimons
Bracketed KO IV

In remembrance of my dear wife’s parents, Margery and Daniel Fitzsimons. Margery was an avid games player who enjoyed the challenge of everything from the daily crossword to the family board game. Margery played her first game of duplicate bridge at our local club a few years ago at the age of 82. Given the opportunity, I suspect Margery could have been a superior player, so let this be a reminder of how we should continue our outreach so that everyone has a chance to experience our great game. Daniel’s approach to bridge was a bit more cavalier. Suffice it to say that Daniel would have provided an excellent resource for all those wonderful stories we read in the Bridge Bulletin. To Daniel and Margery, we remember you, we love you.

Smiley Faces

You may have noticed the yellow Smiley Face cards in your bidding boxes. Unit 174 has provided these to give players an easy, non-confrontational way of letting partner/opponents know that their behavior is not conforming to the Zero Tolerance guidelines. If you feel the situation warrants, simply pull out the card and lay it on the table for a short period. If the behavior doesn't stop, then call the director. It really is a good way to lessen the tension at the table.

Lynne Graham
I/N Pairs

Lynne Graham was a highly respected and greatly loved bridge teacher here in Houston. She was born and raised in Eunice, Louisiana where she is now buried. Lynne had six children, one of whom preceded her in death. Three sons and a daughter are in Texas and one son is in Eunice, Louisiana. Lynne loved to dance, play bridge, teach bridge and was a fantastic cook. She asked Joyce Ryan to continue her bridge teaching in St. Martin's and said, "That is my legacy to Houston Bridge." We miss her very much!
