Tom Corlett Wins 2010 Jacoby Award

Congratulations to Tom Corlett, from Unit 233, the winner of the 2010 Oswald and Jim Jacoby Service Award. District 16's premier service award was established in 1982 to honor those volunteers who have worked diligently at the Unit level and have risen to recognition at the District level after many years of outstanding service.

During any given week Tom actively teaches bridge lessons for 30 minutes before regularly scheduled club games, playing in every available club game (often with novice players who love the chance to play with him), and in every possible sectional and regional tournament in Texas and beyond, and attending almost every NABC.

At every tournament associated with District 16 Tom can be seen encouraging novice players as well as others and eagerly introducing newer bridge friends to perennial tournament attendees. He is such an ambassador for the sense of camaraderie that extends among fellow bridge players whether at the club, unit, district, or national level. He is the "go to" person for answers to questions about bridge strategy, bridge etiquette, bridge conventions, and bridge statistics. He is such a "pied piper" for this game.

Tom served a three-year term on the Unit Board of Directors from 1992-1995 serving as vice-president his first year and as president for one year. He was elected as Unit representative to the District Board of Directors for a three year term in 1997 and re-elected for two more three year terms. During this period he faithfully shared reports of meetings with the Unit Board of Directors.

He co-chaired the Waco sectional tournaments in 1999, 2004, 2005, and 2006 with exemplary results.

In 2000, Tom was one of three District 16 representatives elected to the ACBL Board of Governors and has been re-elected continuously up to the present. As a member of the District 16 Board of Directors, he served as vice-president in 2003 and president in 2004. In October 2000 he was awarded lifetime membership on the ACBL National Goodwill Committee. In 2009 he was unanimously awarded the Texas Star Award for Central Texas Bridge Unit 233.

Tom Corlett represents all that the District 16 Jacoby Award stands for in offering service, support, expertise, and love of the game from the smallest unit game to the largest tournament in District 16 and beyond.

where it is due and seek to give credit for success throughout the organization. When a true leader is asked, "What do you do?" he or she will say something like, "I work with people to accomplish the goals of the organization."

A good leader is open and willing to listen to the thoughts and ideas of others in the organization. An open leader never forgets that there is no "I" in TEAM! This leader is also creative and able to think outside the box. Hakala states that the most important question a true leader can ask is "What if...?"

Effective leaders are fair and gain all the necessary information before making decisions. They treat all the members of the organization in a manner that is perceived as fair. They are assertive and able to state expectations clearly.

Finally a sense of humor is essential to the repertoire of skills that an effective leader possesses. A good leader knows when and how to use humor to defuse a tense situation or to energize the group.

It is difficult to predict how someone will react in a leadership position because ego may adversely affect the effectiveness; however, in bridge we know that effective leadership will either help our membership grow -- or not! It is essential for District 16 to maintain or improve our current membership level in order to keep our five regional tournaments per year, and effective leadership can make all the difference.

As you work with your unit this year to select those in leadership positions, consider these qualities of effective leaders. Better yet, check yourself against these qualities and see if you might be just the leader that your unit needs! Ref: <http://www.hrworld.com/features/top-10-leadership-qualities-031908/>

World Champions! Donna Compton Wins Mixed Pairs, Greg Hinze Wins Mixed Teams

Congratulations to Donna Compton and Greg Hinze, who each won a Mixed event at the recent World Championships in Philadelphia. Donna, playing with Fulvio Fantoni from Italy, won the opening event, the World Mixed Pairs. Her position was 124th after the three qualifying rounds; 156 pairs of the 432 entered qualified for the finals. She followed with a cumulative 57.71% in the final 3 sessions to win by close to a board.

Greg, partnered with JoAnn Sprung of Philadelphia and teammates Connie Goldberg of Philadelphia, Canadian Dan Lavee and Lynn and Dale Johannesen from Washington, won the Mixed Swiss Teams. Greg's team led after the qualifying and went into the final with full carry-over. They stayed close to the lead and regained the lead with a strong final match.

Other District 16 members had notably high finishes in other events. Bob Hamman lost a close final in the prestigious Rosenblum Cup, the only major team event he has yet to win. It was a very exciting match that hinged on a few key hands. The hands and results can be viewed at http://www.bridgebase.com/vugraph_archives/vugraph_archives.php.

John Zilic, playing with Kelly Hwang from New York, took home the bronze medal for third place in the IMP Pairs. In the 15-session Women's Pairs, Georgiana Gates, paired with former longtime District 16 member Pat Norman of Colorado, placed fifth.

Sleepless in Philadelphia

By Ellen Hessel

October 4, 2010 - 4:45 A.M. - Yep, looks like it's closing in on a full 24 without any shut-eye. I must confess that while on the tournament trail I normally partake in a sleep-aid medication before retiring, but was so exhausted from the six sessions (3 days) of the Mixed Pairs I'd somehow convinced myself that slipping into slumber would be a piece of cake. I was mistaken. At this point, I thought I might as well use the quiet (well, mostly quiet - my partner and roommate has a soft, even snore) to reflect on the outstanding experience of actually being in Philadelphia and competing in the 13th World Championships. Certainly hats go off to the World Bridge Federation and all of the many organizers and volunteers that it must have taken to pull off what had to be an enormous undertaking. The playing conditions were superb, starting with each table (216 in play for the 1st qualifier of the Mixed Pairs) spaced at least 6 to 8 feet apart in all directions and equipped with wooden screens and bidding trays that appeared to have just been delivered from the saw mill, crispy clean bidding boxes, pre-dealt hands and a computerized scoring machine that was programmed to give both directions their percentage earned on the board just played. Impressively the directors kept the event running amazingly smoothly and timely. During the last round of each set a personal summary for each pair was placed on your table, so no needless waiting around for results. The two daily sessions were basically set up as a play-through, varying with 10 sometimes 11 A.M. starts and giving just enough time for a quick bite between sets (one to two hours), allowing for the evening to be spent at your discretion. Within minutes of the playing site were a plethora of high quality and reasonably priced restaurants and cafes of every cuisine imaginable - a very happening downtown area. (Philly will be hosting 2012 Summer NABC.) A surprising detail for me in the conditions of contest read as follows: "For the Mixed Pairs - in order to ensure that there shall be a man and a woman on each side of the screen, the men shall sit North and West, the women South and East." (Everyone was wearing clothes - there was a published dress code!) My amusement continues as I've since questioned several world champions as to the purpose behind the rule. Each provided a reasonable view but to date I haven't been given the same explanation from anyone. Okay, back to 7:45 A.M. - The land of Nod still eludes - must be time to get up - need to be at the airport by 10. What remains are, of course, all the results that might have been but weren't (and I must admit there were quite a few) - but more importantly a most-positive lifetime memory. As I always say, "You just can't win if you ain't there!"

Charles Price

District 16
President

For thirty years I was in a leadership position with the public schools in Texas, and during the past ten years, I have taught leadership courses at the university level. Good leadership skills are necessary in businesses, schools, and organizations such as bridge units and districts. Let's consider some of these qualities as we choose our next unit officers, tournament chairpersons or others in leadership roles.

David Hakala (HR World, March 2008), identified ten essential leadership qualities. This month we will discuss these qualities.

A leader should have a clear vision of where the organization should go and how to achieve its goals. This would include helping the organization establish goals and action plans and communicate the goals to all the stakeholders. In other words, effective leaders get everyone on the same page and working together. Communication is critical. Are items clearly stated or is there a "failure to communicate?"

Integrity and dedication are also essential. These characteristics might be observed through organizational skills. Are appointments made in a timely manner? Are agendas provided at the last minute or several days ahead? Is the organization always trying to catch up? Are meetings productive due to preplanning and effective leadership skills? Effective leaders are magnanimous and humble. They give credit

Hamman Wins Buffet Cup

Congratulations to Bob Hamman, winner of the distinguished Buffet Cup for 2010. Bob, partnered with Zia Mahmood, was a member of the 12-person US squad that defeated the Europeans in May. The cup, named for Warren Buffet, is awarded biannually. Donna Compton, who won the World Mixed pairs 2 weeks later, served as the captain of the US team.

Two teams of 12 top players from the United States and their counterparts from Europe compete for the Cup every two years, beginning in 2006. Bob, playing with Paul Soloway, won the inaugural cup in 2006. Donna was the captain of that team as well. Europe won in 2008.

an Upper Peninsula tournament, they each garnered more than 76 points. They were the top master point winners at the regional, winning three KO's and the Sunday Swiss. No snow job there...only real talent!

Must all good things come to an end? Nell Morgan is hanging up her spurs as tournament chairman for the New Braunfels Sectional. She was feted with flowers and well-deserved praise after a fabulous and successful event. More than 280 tables were in play, including a robust showing among the 299ers. The Sunday Swiss Team event is now officially the "Nell Morgan Stratified Swiss Teams." Congratulations to you, Nell! Though she still looks like a young chick, Nell has been managing the New Braunfels club for more than 25 years and will soon be 79 (she specifically gave me permission to mention this!) She is comforted in her resignation, however, knowing that the completely and ever-competent Paula Warren will succeed her as tournament chair. By the way, Paula and M. Rita de Hoyos did a terrific job with hospitality; everything was tasty and plentiful. (At the end of this column is a copy of Rita's much sought-after recipe for the shrimp salsa we all enjoyed.) Thanks, too, to Jackie Scott who has managed partnerships for the tournament for 20 years. Top masterpoint winners for the tournament overall: Marilyn Arnold (19.68), Jerry Harrington (19.24).

During August, Donna Watkins and Dave Swarhout took the Great North by storm. At a Canadian regional and Talk about talent...Ira Hessel and Greg Hinze cleaned up at the D16 regional in Dallas, earning 72.88 and 70.22 points respectively.

Greg Hinze gave the first in a series of lessons in Winning Bridge at Turtle Creek in August to a full and most appreciative crowd. His comments and tips were instructive, clear and most useful to the very diverse group who attended and who certainly look forward to more from him. Upcoming speakers in this educational series will include Ira Hessel and Terry Riely.

While you were all playing your hearts (and spades) out at the Wilson Davis, Jr. San Antonio Election Sectional, I was challenged on a different level. I was babysitting my two very young grandkids in New Jersey - who weren't at all excited about the World Bridge Series which I watched on Bridgebase.com's vugraph while they napped. How interesting to see the different bidding styles of the international players and how encouraging to see that even they mess up sometimes! It occurs to me that as we continue to play bridge, we continue to make errors; it is the quality of our errors that improves. Kudos to the many happy players at the Sectional, including the highest masterpoint winners: Ed Rawlinson (28.46); Dave Swarhout (25.86); and Donna Watkins (23.03). And thanks to Paula Wissman who handled feeding the masses so well!

Congratulations to the newly elected Unit Board Directors: Jeri Tribo (re-elected), Roxana Tom, Stephen Hoffman and Rebecca Brown. Each was elected for a three year term. Your Unit Board meetings are held on the 2nd Monday of each month at 5 p.m. at Turtle Creek Bridge Club (for 2010); the meetings are open and all are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Table Tidbit: We all know that Gary Anziani is a top player, but did you know that he is a piano player, too? His career was in hospital administration, serving the Veterans Administration for 36 years, but he has always loved the piano. Gary began his keyboard studies at age 5. His line of teachers stem back to Beethoven (No, Gary is not that old!). His favorite period is the Romantic era. While he has never played professionally, he has played for fund raisers and aboard cruise ships (for fun only...but he is available for engagements. My cut will be modest!)

Another bridge table romance: Sharon and George Mann meet in San Jose at a bridge tournament in 1982 and have been laying their cards on the table ever since! Her partner at that tournament was Jyme Schmieder, whose own bridge romance was reported last time.

Here is Rita's recipe for Shrimp Salsa: 15-20 chopped tomatoes (Roma are best)

½ large or 1 small onion, chopped
1-2 bunches cilantro, finely chopped
6-8 large (or 10-12 small) Serrano peppers, finely chopped
1 large package frozen cooked shrimp (medium sized)
5-6 avocados, chopped
2 bottles of cocktail sauce
Juice of 2-3 fresh limes
Lemon pepper, garlic powder, and pepper to taste
Mix all but avocado and refrigerate overnight, adding the avocado before serving. Eat and enjoy!

HOT OFF THE PRESS: Greg Hinze, freshly-minted Grand Life Master, won the WORLD Mixed Teams at the World Bridge Series in Philadelphia. Note to us all: Practice the following while bowing and scraping in his presence: "I am not worthy, I am not worthy!" Congrats most sincerely, Greg!
