

2011-2012

NORTH AMERICAN PAIRS

ONE OF THE ACBL'S PREMIER PAIR EVENTS!

Qualify at the Club Level (Awards Sectionally rated black/red)

- Play in club qualifying games held in June, July, and August.
- Pairs finishing in the top 50% of their field plus any pair scoring average or better will qualify for the Unit 174 finals in November.

Flighting

- Flight A – Open to all ACBL members.
- Flight B – Open to ACBL members with fewer than 2,000 MP as of the June 2011 cycle.
- Flight C – Open to non-life master ACBL members with fewer than 500 MP as of the June 2011 cycle.

Qualify at the Unit Level

- Play in the Unit level finals to be held at the Fort Worth Studio
- Flight B—September 25th—12:30pm & TBA
- Flights A & C—October 9th—12:30pm & TBA
- Start time: Pairs finishing in the top 60% of their field plus any pair scoring average or better will qualify for the District 16 finals.

Players qualify as individuals and may form new partnerships with other qualifiers to play in the Unit finals.

For the Conditions of Contest, see www.d16acbl.org.

For more information

Contact : Steve Shirey (817) 292-4719
Or email : shireysa@charter.net

Qualify at the District Level

- Play in the District finals to be held January 14-15, 2012 in San Antonio.
- The top three pairs will qualify to play in the National finals at the Spring NABC in Memphis in March 2012. The top two pairs in each flight will receive subsidies to defray their travel costs. Also, our District may be eligible for a fourth qualifying pair in any or all flights.